ARTICLE I. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Classifications of Membership

Membership of the Association will consist of:

A. Active membership: active membership includes several types of special interest categories with varying dues structures. All active members can vote, hold office, belong to sections and roundtables, and receive member registration rates at the annual conference.

Individual personal membership: Any person employed by a North Dakota library or otherwise actively engaged in promoting North Dakota library interests will, upon payment of specified dues, be entitled to active membership in the Association.

Student membership (3-year limit): Any person employed by a North Dakota library or otherwise actively engaged in promoting North Dakota library interests and enrolled in a library school program will, upon payment of specified dues, be entitled to active membership in the Association.

Library trustee membership: Any trustee of a library board in the state of North Dakota may, upon payment of specified dues, be entitled to active membership in the Association.

B. Other types of membership (non-voting): the non-voting memberships include three types of special interest categories. Non-voting members can neither vote, hold elected office, nor be a member of a roundtable or section.

Retired and Friends membership: Any person not employed by a North Dakota library nor actively engaged in promoting North Dakota library interests but interested in promoting the purposes of the Association may, upon payment of specified dues, become a nonvoting member of the Association. Retired and Friends members do receive member registration rates at the annual conference.

Institutional membership: Any library or organization interested in or concerned with the work of libraries or librarianship may, upon payment of specified dues, become a nonvoting member of the Association. Staff of the Institutional member must have individual active memberships to vote and receive member registration rates at the annual conference.

Honorary membership: Honorary membership may be conferred upon a person or institution for meritorious contributions to library development or for high attainment in the field of librarianship by a three-fourths vote of those present at an annual meeting. Length of membership will be determined by the Executive Board. Honorary members will not be required to pay dues but do receive member registration rates at the annual conference.

Section 2.

Dues

Dues are payable annually upon the anniversary date of joining NDLA for new members who joined after October 1, 2016. Members in good standing in 2016-2017 will pay dues annually in accordance with the last date paid after October 1, 2016 and prior to October 1, 2017. If a member is in good standing when registering for the annual conference, he/she shall receive the membership registration benefit offered.

A. Dues structure:

1. Active Membership

a. Individual Personal Membership:

Salary Range Annual Membership Dues

$0 - $30,000 $35.00

$30,001 - $49,999 $45.00

$50,000 + $60.00

b. Student Membership: $25.00

c. Library Trustee Membership: $25.00

2. Non-voting Membership

- a. Retired and Friends Membership: $25
- b. Institutional Membership: $25
- c. Honorary Membership: waived

B. The Executive Board will review the dues structure annually. When directed by the Executive Board, the Finance Committee will recommend changes to the dues structure.

C. All proposals for changing the dues structure will be submitted to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Policies Committee. Proposed dues changes will be presented to the membership at least one month before voting. Passage will require a majority of those voting.

ARTICLE II - MEETINGS

All meetings of any board, committee, or other body of the Association at which Association business is discussed or at which any formal action is taken are open to the membership.

Section 1. Annual Membership Meeting

A. The annual meeting of the Association will be held at such time and place as determined by the Executive Board. Thirty days' notice must be given all members of the Association.

B. Proposed resolutions must be submitted in writing by the announced deadline as determined by the President. During association business meetings (e.g. general sessions), resolutions must be read aloud; the reading may take place just prior to the vote.

Section 2. Special Meetings

Special meetings may be held at the call of the President, upon approval of the Executive Board, provided that two weeks' notice is given to all of the Association. A quorum for any special membership meeting will be based on twenty-five percent of the Association membership registered at the last annual conference.

Section 3. General Membership Business

Business of the general membership between annual meetings will be conducted electronically.

ARTICLE III - NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Nominations

The President will appoint a four member Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee.

A. The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee proposes a minimum of two NDLA members for each of the NDLA offices of President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer and reports nominations to the Executive Board. The Executive Board approves the nominations prior to the creation of the ballot.

B. The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee proposes a minimum of two NDLA members to run as representatives for each affiliated organization and reports nominations to the Executive Board. The Executive Board approves the nominations prior to the creation of the ballot. Terms of office for affiliation representatives are as specified in the Policies Handbook.

Section 2. Elections

The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee assumes responsibility for working out election details as specified in the Policies Handbook.

A. All elections of NDLA officers, affiliation representatives and officers of sections and roundtables will be conducted by ballot. The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee prepares the official ballot coordinating it with section and roundtable chairs. The ballots, which will provide for write-in votes, will be distributed to the voting membership at least thirty days prior to the annual conference.

B. For each office the candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee determines and reports the results of the balloting to the Executive Board which validates election results and, in disputes regarding elections, serves as the final arbiter. In the case of a tie vote, the successful candidate shall be determined by lot conducted by the Executive Board.

Section 3. General Membership

Voting

The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee assumes responsibility for working out general membership voting details as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

A. All voting done of the general membership will be conducted by ballot. The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee prepares the official ballot. The ballots will be distributed to the voting membership at least thirty days prior to the opening of the voting period.

B. A majority vote of all returned ballots determines results. The Nominations, Elections, and Voting Committee determines and reports the results of the balloting to the Executive Board which validates results and in disputes regarding results serves as the final arbiter.

C. Voting questions will be announced to the general membership by the President of NDLA at least 30 days prior to the opening of electronic vote. Discussion can occur electronically. The President will announce opening and closing of electronic voting.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

Section 1.

Term

A. Officers are elected for a one-year term, with the exception of the Treasurer, and assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting following their election. Incoming and outgoing Executive Board members will meet together immediately after the close of the annual meeting and the new officers will assume their duties.

They serve until the close of the next annual meeting.

B. The Treasurer serves a three-calendar year term. The incoming Treasurer will serve an orientation period with the presiding Treasurer following the annual meeting until the term begins.

Section 2. Duties of Officers

A. The President serves as the official spokesperson for the Association; presides at all meetings of the Association and the Executive Board; serves as the Association's representative on all committees as required by North Dakota statute; performs all other duties as provided for in these Bylaws or as assigned by the Executive Board and assumes all other responsibilities that are in accordance with the parliamentary procedure adopted by the Association and as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

B. The President-Elect, at the request of the President and the Executive Board or during the President's absence or inability to act, exercises the authority of the President; acts as the official spokesperson under the direction of the President; and carries out such other duties as assigned by the President, Executive Board or as provided for in these Bylaws and as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

C. The Secretary is responsible for the recording and distribution of the minutes of all Association and Executive Board meetings; maintain official records for the Association and performs other duties as assigned by the President or the Executive Board and as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

D. The Treasurer is responsible for the Association's financial records, including dues and other income; pays Association debts; provides quarterly and annual reports of Association financial status for Executive Board approval; serves on the Membership Committee and the Finance Committee; and performs other duties as assigned by the President or the Executive Board and as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

E. The immediate past-President shall be the responsible coordinating agent for the program planning of the Association's annual conference and, with regard to the annual conference, shall perform other duties affecting the annual conference as may be assigned by the President of the Association and the Association's Executive Board and as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

Section 3. Vacancies

President: A vacancy in the office of President will be filled for the duration of an unexpired term by the President-Elect.

President-Elect: A vacancy in the office of President-Elect that occurs before June 2 will be filled by a special election. A vacancy that occurs after June 2 will be filled by the annual election.

Section 4. Removal of Officers

A. Elected officers of the Association may be removed from office for just cause. A two-thirds majority vote of the Executive Board is required to authorize a ballot to the membership seeking removal of an officer(s). Officers being considered for removal cannot vote during removal procedures. An affirmative vote of two-thirds majority of the votes returned removes an officer upon validation of election results.

B. Just cause is defined as any willful violation of the provisions of the NDLA Constitution or Bylaws, violation of statutory law which tarnished the reputation of the Association, or incapacity in executing the responsibilities of office.

ARTICLE V - EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. Voting Members

If a voting member of the Board is unable to attend an Executive Board meeting, that member may designate a proxy with full privileges of the office.

Section 2. Primary Duties of the Executive Board

Responsibilities include: A. Approve the annual budget; B. Approve the budget of the annual conference; C. Approve executive board minutes and financial reports; D. Act upon petitions for the establishment of sections and roundtables;

E. Validate election results and in disputes regarding elections serves as the final arbiter; F. Approve the Policies Handbook.

Section 3. Executive Board Meetings

A Board meeting may be held at the call of the President or a majority of the Board members.

Section 4. Reports

All Executive Board members (voting and non-voting) submit an annual written report to the Executive Board prior to the annual meeting. At other times of the year, for items requiring action or discussion (such as making decisions on the annual operating budget, the annual conference budget, audits, elections, annual conference planning, legislative priorities, etc.) a written report should be submitted to the President.

Section 5. Reimbursement of Expenses

Actual expenses incurred in transacting or furthering of Association business may be reimbursable as specified in the Policies Handbook. Reimbursement is never to exceed total actual expenses.

Section 6. Executive Committee of the Board

The Executive Committee of the Board shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Past- President, Secretary, and Treasurer. In situations where the full Board cannot address a matter in a timely fashion, as determined by the Executive Board, the Executive Committee of the Board may be called upon to investigate, discuss, and either recommend a course of action or to act with final authority for the Executive Board when dealing with the matter at hand (if explicitly stated in the charge); however, proposed or final course(s) of action are subject to review, modification, approval (if required), or rescinding by a majority vote of the Executive Board. Any action taken by the Executive Committee of the Board must be reported to the full Executive Board within 14 days or at the next Executive Board meeting, whichever occurs first.

ARTICLE VI - COMMITTEES

All committees are as specified in the NDLA Policy Manual.

Section 1. Appointments

Standing committee chairs are appointed by the President and serve a term concurrently with that of the President. The President has the authority to establish additional committees as needed.

Section 2. Standing Committees

Committees required for the ongoing functioning of the Association include: Constitution, Bylaws and Policies; Finance; Membership; and Nominations, Elections, and Voting.
